

TREE HUGGERS

ADAM FRIED—THE DIAMONDBACK

Preschool students at the Center for Young Children help plant a tree outside their playground Wednesday. The tree — a red maple — was the first one planted on the campus by Facilities Management to mark a new tradition of annual tree-planting in observance of Arbor Day in Maryland.

Tree donated by Stadler Nurseries